

Lobby

The inviting 7,500 square foot Lobby will welcome and orient visitors to the variety of Museum experiences and opportunities available. The versatility of the design will allow the Lobby to meet multipurpose needs during non-Museum hours, to include special events, ceremonies, and dinners.

Donor Wall

Major donor recognition is an integral part of the Army Historical Foundation's Campaign for the National Museum of the U.S. Army. Individuals, corporations, foundations, and organizations donating $50,000-$4,999,999 will be prominently displayed in the Museum's Lobby in five circles of distinction—One-Star through Five-Star. Those contributing $5,000,000 or more will be recognized in the Commander-in-Chief's Circle.

Wall of Honor (Colors of Courage)

The Army has fought 11 wars and conducted 187 campaigns over the past 238 years. Those hard-fought honors are represented by battle streamers that are attached to the Army flag as a reminder of the selfless service and courage of the over 30 million men and women who have served the nation during times of war and peace.

This awe-inspiring U.S. Army Wall of Honor displays the identity, traditions and history that make up the intangible spirit of a unit—its soul.

recognized contributions

The generosity of all major donors will be recognized and prominently displayed in the Museum's lobby.

Conceptual Renderings of National Army Museum, Courtesy of Christopher Chadbourne & Associates