

THE NATIONAL MUSEUM OF THE UNITED STATES ARMY
THE REGISTRY THE ARMY COMMUNITY

The Registry of the Army Community provides a unique opportunity to recognize and honor civilians who have supported the Army and its troops. The Registry will be prominently displayed at The National Museum of the United States Army. Any civilian who has served in a role that supports or serves the Army or its Soldiers (Army Nurse Corps, DoD, Army spouse, journalist, etc.) is eligible to have a special registry page on the Museum website. To enroll yourself, or to honor a friend or family member, please log on to www.usarmyregistry.org or complete the form below. If additional space is needed, please use the back of this page.
