The Army Historical Foundation Gallery Recognition Opportunities

CHANGING WORLD GALLERY

Circles of Distinction donors who pledge $150,000 and up have the opportunity to support a gallery, exhibit, or item within the National Museum of the United States Army. This is an opportunity to connect with a meaningful piece of Army history within the Museum and help The Army Historical Foundation reach their campaign goals. You can work with The Army Historical Foundation team to create a personalized recognition package.

Recognition opportunities start at $150,000 for items like our Soldiers' Stories Kiosks, $250,000 and up for exhibit areas, and $5,000,000 for the entire gallery. Donation amount is related to size and significance of the exhibit or item you are supporting.

CHANGING WORLD GALLERY

The Changing World Gallery is located off the Army Concourse. This gallery chronicles one of the most dynamic and global periods in U.S. Army history, from the fall of the Soviet Union through our nation's current conflicts.

Donors are recognized on a plaque at the gallery's exit.

CHANGING WORLD GALLERY (1990-Present)

The Changing World Gallery chronicles one of the most dynamic and global periods in U.S. Army history, from the fall of the Soviet Union through our nation's most current conflicts. The Global War on Terror portion follows the progression of operations in both Afghanistan and Iraq. The theme, Changing World, sets up an interesting dichotomy indicating that while the last two decades have been a time of near-constant conflict, it is the individual Soldier who must, as always, endure the challenges of war.

Exhibits like America Attacked: September 11th (above) use a combination of artifacts and text to explain an event.

Soldiers' Stories Kiosks

Kiosks are stationed throughout the Museum with personal stories from Soldiers involved in the respective conflict. These kiosks connect to the central theme of the Museum by providing visitors the opportunity to experience the personal accounts of American Soldiers. The Changing World Gallery features kiosks about Afghanistan and Iraq.
