

The Army Historical Foundation Gallery Recognition Opportunities

NATIONAL MUSEUM
UNITED STATES
ARMY

COLD WAR GALLERY

Circles of Distinction donors who pledge $150,000 and up have the opportunity to support a gallery, exhibit, or item within the National Museum of the United States Army. This is an opportunity to connect with a meaningful piece of Army history within the Museum and help The Army Historical Foundation reach their campaign goals. You can work with The Army Historical Foundation team to create a personalized recognition package.

Recognition opportunities start at $150,000 for items like our Soldiers' Stories Kiosks, $250,000 and up for exhibit areas, and $5,000,000 for the entire gallery. Donation amount is related to size and significance of the exhibit or item you are supporting.

Donors are recognized on a plaque at the gallery's exit.

FIGHTING FOR THE NATION GALLERIES

The Cold War Gallery is located off the Army Concourse and details the Army's role in the Korean War, Vietnam War, and Germany.

COLD WAR GALLERY (1945-1991)

The Cold War Gallery recounts a time when the United States faced numerous global challenges during the Cold War. American Soldiers manned a defensive line in Europe that deterred a potential attack, while on the other side of the world, the U.S. Army fought wars in Korea and Vietnam.

This gallery also features a glimpse at the representation of the U.S. Army Europe headquarters in Heidelberg, Germany. (Above) an immersive, media-based show demonstrating the Army's preparedness for defending our allies from an attack by the Warsaw Pact is an impactful part of the gallery experience.

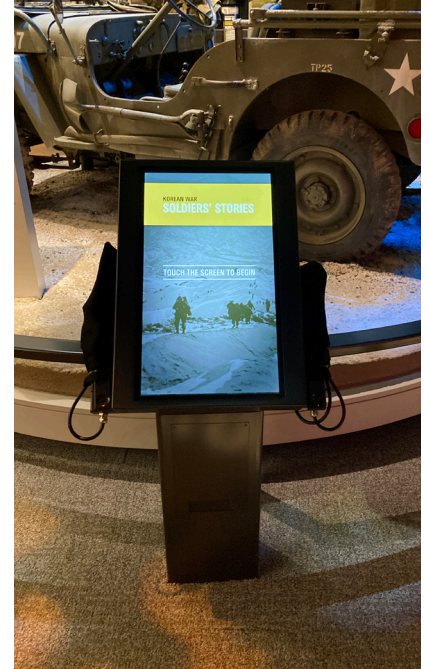

Above, the iconic UH-1B "Huey" Helicopter can be seen suspended from the ceiling of the Vietnam Exhibit, while the Soldiers are on patrol in the M38 Jeep from the Korean War.

To the left, exhibits in the Korean War Exhibit explain the Forgotten War.

Soldiers' Stories Kiosks

Kiosks are stationed throughout the Museum with personal stories from Soldiers involved in the respective conflict. These kiosks connect to the central theme of the Museum by providing visitors the opportunity to experience the personal accounts of American Soldiers. The Cold War Gallery includes several kiosks that tell stories from Europe, Korea, and Vietnam. The kiosks featuring stories from the Korean War is pictured right.
