PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

2022 was a year of significant growth for the Foundation and the Museum.

Thank you to all of our supporters and donors who helped us build a home for the American Soldier.

The Foundation continues with its mission to honor the history and heritage of the American Soldier. Your support provided our Soldiers and Army families this permanent tribute, this magnificent Museum, and it was your generosity that made the National Army Museum a reality. And what a journey this has truly been. From the beginning and into our future, our mission holds steady, to share the history and heritage of the United States Army and American Soldier to the American public.

In this brief report, we will offer a general review of 2022 and the Foundation's progress as we look to our future. We remind ourselves on occasion, given our brief opening in November 2020, when coupled with a second opening in June 2021, that 2023 will be the first time we have had the opportunity to return to somewhat more "normal" operating conditions. Even with the limited operating experiences, we are determined to apply every 2022 lesson applicable to improving the Foundation's mission performance.

As we prepare for the Foundation's next chapter, my tenure with the organization will come to an end this spring as I formally retire as AHF's President. I do plan to stay the course as a devoted supporter and ambassador to the cause. You may even see me share my own Soldier story and experiences as a Museum docent some day. With my farewell comes a hail as I am pleased to announce that the AHF Board of Directors has named BG Burt Thompson (USA-Ret.) as the Foundation's next President.

There are areas that simply stand out as indicators of our success.

- Increasing visitor base attending the Museum.
From this baseline, we create our communications & marketing, business, educational and outreach programs, and fundraising strategies. Each category represents a key 2022 business element.
- Marketing for the National Army Museum.
Perhaps it is important to clarify, marketing for the Army's Museum is a Foundation task. That means every program that runs in the Museum has an element of Foundation support connected to it.
- Assisting & creating educational experiences.
The Museum's Experiential Learning Center is focused on learners of all ages. We love seeing students from local schools and beyond to include those from California, Ohio, South Carolina and Florida.
- Growing our Member & Donor programs.
Our fundraising experience in 2022 was affected by the prevailing economic conditions. We were very careful with 2022 expenses to ensure alignment with our revenue and bottom-line projections.

As we head into Q2 of 2023 and beyond, the new incoming President, BG Thompson will bring an accomplished military career and private sector leadership to AHF as we continue to move our mission forward. Here's to a great 2023 and forward progress ahead!

LTG Roger Schultz, USA-Ret.

President, The Army Historical Foundation

GEN Shinseki, Chairman of the Foundation, presenting Ms. Tammy Call, Museum Director, with The President's Award.

In Ms. Call's words: "America's Soldiers are among the finest of our citizenry and have been instrumental in the forming, fighting for, and protecting our nation. The Museum tells these stories through the very eyes and voices of our Soldiers."

The 2022 President's Award

The 2022 President's Award Recipient was Ms. Tammy Call, the Director of National Museum of the United States Army. Ms. Call has been a valued Army partner for over 8 years. We want everyone to know just how much our relationship with the Army means to the success of the Foundation's Mission. From the very beginning in 2014, Ms. Call, our number one strategic partner, has been by our side. She continues to make what we do even more meaningful. From the complex tasks to the daily routines, Tammy has been a rock-solid teammate. We all know the strength of our team is grounded by the dedication and strength in each of our teammates. We could not think of anyone more deserving of the President's Award at our first in-person annual meeting than our partner, Ms. Tammy Call.

Matt Seelinger, AHF's Chief Historian received a photo of high school students reading On Point: The Journal of Army History in their World War II and Vietnam War history classes.

CONSTRUCTION UPDATE: WARRIORS' PLAZA & FIELD

Scheduled for completion Summer 2023!

Thanks to the enduring generosity of The Army Historical Foundation's supporters, the National Museum of the United States Army will dedicate the Warriors' Plaza and Field early this summer. The expansive site is being transformed into an outdoor experiential space that will bring entertaining events, patriotic celebrations, and Army demonstrations to the Museum.

The thousands of commemorative bricks lining the walkways will remind visitors of the individual Soldiers and Army family members who make-up the Army's legacy. The memorial set in the plaza, which will include three stone fragments from the 9/11 attacks on the Pentagon, will create a contemplative setting where visitors can remember those lost on that day and throughout Army history. The plaza's 20 trees and 18 benches will also offer tranquil places to enjoy views of the Museum and the surrounding scenery in the company of family, friends, and visitors from around the world.

The Foundation funded the construction of Warriors' Plaza and Field with a significant contribution from the Commonwealth of Virginia and from grateful supporters, including Army veterans, their families and friends. The completed plaza and field will further establish the Museum as a popular local event destination and national attraction.

Darcy Brewer, AHF's Senior Project Manager of Construction, leads a group of 1814 Society Members on a hardhat tour of Warriors' Plaza and Field as a part of the Foundation's Annual Meeting. Standing in front of the Museum, Brewer is pointing out the location of the future Memorial Garden.

HIGHLIGHTS & MILESTONES

2022 was the first year the National Museum of the United States Army maintained continuous operations since the grand opening on 11 November 2020. This year provided many firsts for the Foundation and the Museum.

This past Memorial Day was the first that the Museum was open to visitors. As envisioned, the Museum provided the public a special place to remember and honor fallen service members. During Memorial Day weekend, the Foundation hosted a special documentary screening of Sunken Roads: Three Generations After D-Day. Visitors were also able to participate in a poppy-making activity, which highlighted the flower's symbolism for honoring the fallen.

On 9 April 2022 the Foundation offered our first in person battle ride since the pandemic to the Monocacy Battlefield. On 24 September 2022 we visited the Battleship New Jersey and American Helicopter Museum to learn about Naval, Air, and Land operations during the Vietnam War. Participants learned how the battleship supported Army operations during the Vietnam War and in particular, the Tet Offensive.

In April, to celebrate Volunteer Appreciation Week, the Museum held their inaugural Volunteer Breakfast honoring the over 300 individuals who volunteer at the Museum. Thanks to the generous contribution of longstanding donors and Founding Sponsors Michael and Karen Urette, the volunteer appreciation breakfast will be a staple at the Museum for many years to come.

Army ArtiFACTS was launched as a new Member Series as supplemental educational content to the AHF portfolio of offerings. This virtual program explores artifacts from across America that contain military history. Episodes feature interviews with experts at peer museums who share pieces of their collection.

Member Series: Exploring artifacts from across America

During Memorial Day weekend, the Foundation hosted a special documentary screening of Sunken Roads: Three Generations After D-Day. The documentary follows a group of World War II veterans who return to Normandy for the 70th anniversary of D-Day. Visitors were also able to participate in a poppy-making activity, which highlighted the flower's symbolism for honoring the fallen.

So Ready for Laughter: The Legacy of Bob Hope, produced by the National WWII Museum, was on display at the Museum from September 2022 through 27 January 2023. The exhibit shared the story of the iconic entertainer's unique place in World War II history. Known as the "one-man-morale machine" and "G.I. Bob" by those in uniform, Hope performed USO shows for 50 years to 11 million service members.

On 13 April 2022, The Worth family from Wyckoff, N.J. was the Museum's 100,000th visitor!

Veterans from World War II, Korea, and Vietnam traveled to the Museum with the Bay Area Honor Flight.

Gerald Schurtz was USMA class of 1958 and served in Korea and with the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment in Vietnam during Tet '68. He later commanded the 1st Squadron of the 11th ACR in the Fulda Gap from 1974-75. He was also part of the TRADOC development team for AirLand Battle, and was involved in the development of the M1 tank. Gerald visited the Museum with his son John and snapped a photo together by the 11th Armored.

FINANCIAL OVERVIEW

The Foundation obtained a clean 2021 audit in 2022, which is a significant piece of 501(c)(3) operations that is conducted every year highlighting the financial statements that are presented conform and adhere to the generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). The key ingredient in all of our financial activity continues to relate to those supporting the Foundation and the visitors we see in the Museum daily. It all beings there. In the end, success is framed by our relationships with our donors and customers.

LOOKING FORWARD: 2023 NEW TRAVELING EXHIBITS

Mary Whyte's WE THE PEOPLE: Portraits of Veterans in America

The exhibit opened in the Museum's Special Exhibition Gallery on 18 March 2023 and will run until 14 July 2023. WE THE PEOPLE is a moving tribute to the military veterans who are an essential part of the strength and fabric of our country. Whyte has created a collective portrait of our nation suffused with dignity, courage, and honor. These portraits show us how veterans find meaning in life after service, and the hard-won freedoms for which they fought. For more information visit: theNMUSA.org.

James Mellick's "Loyal Service: Working Dogs at War"

Once known as "war dogs," military working dogs serve in all branches of the military to scout, detect, and protect. They may not have actual boots on the ground, but you'll find U.S. military working dogs serving wherever American troops do. They are as loveable as they are loyal, but make no mistake – these are highly skilled warriors, trained by the best to serve alongside them. Dogs didn't have an official role in the U.S. military until the creation of the Army's K9 Corps in March 1942. Today, about 1,600 military working dogs help keep the nation safe. The bond between military working dogs and their handlers is like no other. In this exhibit, artist James Mellick explores the sacrifices of those who have served alongside us in war. While some sculptures exhibit the same wounds as their human counterparts in battle, others are carved replicas of specific working dogs and what they experienced.

OUR 2023 GOALS

Our mission moves forward. Entering our second continual year of operations, the Museum and Foundation are focusing on growing awareness and attendance of and to the Museum. To learn more about our programs and initiatives, and to reserve tickets to the Museum in 2023, visit armyhistory.org.

1

Increase attendance to the National Museum of U.S. Army

2023 will be the first year that the National Army Museum will operate without any capacity restrictions. The Foundation team is focusing on marketing the Museum to the general public across the nation to drive attendance. We saw a glimpse of school and private travel groups returning to the Washington, D.C. area in 2022, and the trends showcase that this will continue and grow in 2023. Visitors are the key to our business and fundraising success, so we are excited to see what 2023 has in store for us.

Expand Membership and Fundraising Programs

The Foundation's fundraising experience was impacted by the 2022 economic condition. The Foundation's membership and fundraising programs will continue in 2023 with Unit Tributes, Bricks, Trees, Benches, and converting Museum visitors to the Museum into members and supporters. With all bricks currently installed, the Foundation will begin semiannual brick installations occurring near Memorial Day and Veterans Day each year.

3

Collaborate with the Museum team to create and present more programs to the general public

The Museum and Foundation teams are working together to create a new selection of offerings that are designed for our everyday audience such as Soldiers, civilians, veterans, family members, young adults, and children. We will continue developing relationships with other key strategic partners, scholars, and donors to ensure that the Museum is seen as a go to destination for Army history and culture.

Preserve the heritage, Educate the Future.

At the forefront in everything we do is "preserve the heritage, educate the future." Our mission to preserve the history and heritage of the Soldier guides all of our decision making whether it is developing new programs, completing Warriors' Plaza and Field, or beginning construction on the Memorial Garden, the Foundation places the Soldier above all else.

Here a father engages with the SATCOM truck in the ELC's Training Center. The ELC encourages visitors to simulate work done by Army Soldiers in the fields of geography, science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (G-STEM).

OUR 2023-2028 PROJECTS

Our mission continues. We have many exciting projects that will expand the Museum Campus and Museum itself. We need your help to make these expansions a reality.

PROJECTS

Warriors' Plaza & Field is scheduled for completion in late Spring/early Summer 2023. As a key outdoor venue for public and private events, the Foundation funded the construction of Warriors' Plaza and Field with a significant contribution from the Commonwealth of Virginia and from other grateful supporters.

The Memorial Garden is the next priority for the Foundation. Adjacent to the Museum plaza and just in front of the entrance, the Memorial Garden will be a dedicated place to honor our fallen Soldiers, Prisoners of War, Missing in Action, their memories, and families.

The Army Trail brings the Museum's G-STEM mission outside. With 14 potential stops, the Army Trail will highlight the new and innovative ways that Soldiers face challenges in battlefield conditions.

The Museum Expansion on the Southside of the Museum will add 70,000 SF in 2 floor to provide more space for the Fighting for the Nation Galleries and macro artifacts.

Rendering of finished Memorial Garden
